The Compassionate God

It's quite surprising and quite mind-blowing to say that God is compassionate. That he sympathises with us and he is concerned for each of us on an individual level. Compassion is a connection on an emotional level. This is quite surprising if God is the creator and sustainer of the whole world. That's a lot of people to be compassionate about and connected with! He is a very compassionate God.

This, however, is how God reveals himself to us in the Bible. In the book of Exodus, Moses asks God to give him an experience of who he is. God hides Moses in a cleft in the rocks (for his protection!) as the Almighty God 'passes by'. As he passes by, God proclaims his name saying "The Lord, The Lord, the compassionate and gracious God..." Moses already knew many facets of God's character from the experiences he'd had including his holiness at the burning bush, his forgiveness for his past, his help and provision in times of weakness and frustrations, his judgement on the tyranny of Egypt, his power in the parting of the Red Sea, his love and his salvation in rescuing his people, and his majesty in conquering the armies of Pharaoh. But of all these things, God chooses to start by highlighting his compassion. That individual relationship experience that Moses has with God. His relationship with God. This intimacy, and this emotional connection with God, incredibly, is also available to us.

As I think about my Christian journey, I have also experienced each of these facets of God's character. As you think about your Christian journey, perhaps you can testify to this too. How wonderful to start with his compassion.

Blessings,

John

Other Events in February

◊ Fellowship Walk: Sunday 1st February

After our morning service on the first Sunday of the month, we usually have a walk together, weather permitting. On 1st February we are planning to go to Llanfairfechan. Wendy Lemon is organising the walk and says it should take about an hour and a half at a leisurely pace; most of the way is on tarmac but it becomes a grassy route at some points and can have puddles and get a little muddy. It's along the coast and can be windy, so warm clothes are advised. We will be taking a minibus and setting off from the church after the morning service; you're welcome to bring a packed lunch and join us as we eat together before heading out. If you have any questions, please contact Wendy (wendylemon@icloud.com).

◊ Cylch Penrallt Tots: Monday afternoons in term-time, 1pm

This is our group for pre-school children and their parents/carers, running during the school term on Monday afternoons from 1 to 2:30pm. £1 per adult (with up to 3 children). Toys, fun play and activities. Snack, tea and coffee. Songs for tots in English and Welsh. Come along for a good space to safely play, to have fun, and to enjoy some good company together. Please note that the group will not be running on 16th February, which is in the half-term holiday.

◊ Alpha: Monday evenings, 6:30pm

Our latest Alpha course at Penrallt started on Monday 26th January and will run on Monday evenings, 6:30 – 9pm, for 11 weeks with a break over Easter. It is still possible for new guests to join during the first two or three weeks of the course. This is a great way to explore the Christian faith and ask the big questions about life, or to reset your walk with Jesus. Each session includes a free meal, a video and a group discussion. Sign up through the church website. For more details chat to Peter Jones (07906 761181). We had 18 guests on the first week and are expecting over 20 guests to enrol in total. This is a wonderful start to this year's Alpha — please keep praying for us.

◊ Bangor Youth For Christ Prayer Meeting: Wednesday 4th February, 7pm

We will be hosting a prayer meeting, led by Bangor YFC Centre Director Grace O'Boyle, in the Twrgwyn Room at Penrallt (please use the side door to come in, as the university CU will be in the chapel that evening — see our Focus article on the back page for more information). This is a space for us to come together across churches, backgrounds, and generations to pray with one heart and one purpose: to see the lives of young people in Bangor transformed by the love of Jesus. All are welcome.

Information in this newsletter is correct, as far as possible, at the time of publication. Please see the website for up to date information, as details are subject to change.

◊ Renew 57: Every Thursday, 10:30am–12:30pm

Renew 57 is a space for the whole community, on Thursday mornings, 10:30am to 12:30pm in Canolfan Penrallt (our rear hall/community centre), free of charge (including refreshments). Bring a hobby to share with someone else or simply sit and chat over a cup of tea or coffee and some toast. A separate prayer space is available for quiet reflection, with optional opportunities to be led in short gentle contemplative prayer at the beginning and end of the session. This is a place where it is “OK not to be OK”, an opportunity to give some attention to our mental and spiritual well-being. To find out more, please speak to Simon (s.lambourne565@btinternet.com) or Magnus (renew@penrallt.org) or drop in and see for yourself.

This is a free family event where we will explore our theme through crafts, games, activities and a meal. This time we are looking at the story of Joseph and considering how he trusted God through all the highs and lows that he faced.

The activities are aimed at children aged between 3 and 11, but there is a crèche space for younger ones as well as games that teenagers will enjoy, so bring the whole family! Please note: all under 18s will need to be supervised by an adult at all times for safeguarding reasons; similarly adults will only be admitted if accompanying children. To help us with numbers, please register your children for the event at <https://penralltbc.churchsuite.com/events/xaxy2np> or scan the QR code, which will take you to the same page.

Focus on...

Bangor University Christion Union

Sharing the Gospel with Students

Bangor University Christian Union have a heart to share the Good News of Jesus with their fellow students.

Their main meetings take place throughout the year, often at Penrallt. They also do a number of other activities, including serving toast to students going up and down Glanrafon Hill on a Wednesday evening (which frequently leads to opportunities to chat with them).

In addition to these things, the CU have an event week each year in February, where they run a series of events every lunchtime and evening with a more directly evangelistic focus. This year their event week is running from 2nd to 6th February and, as usual, the main evening meetings will be taking place at Penrallt. They will also be using our hall and kitchen each morning to hold a prayer breakfast for CU members as they pray and prepare for the events and conversations that will be held through the week.

The programme is as follows:

	Lunchtime (12pm)	Evening (7pm)
Monday	Doomscrolling, failed diets and missed deadlines: Why can't I be who I want to be?	My life, my way; does Jesus care about how I live?
Tuesday	Sky-high rent, climate change, and global conflict: Surviving a messed-up world?	Can Jesus offer rest to the restless mind?
Wednesday	Gene-editing, A.I. and evolution: Do faith and science contradict?	My truth, your truth: Does Jesus have the answer?
Thursday	Ridiculous resurrection: How can anyone believe Jesus came back to life?	Becoming a Christian: Is following Jesus really worth it?
Friday		Getting to grips with the Bible: Uncover the life of Jesus in his own words

Please pray for the CU as they undertake this week of events, and pray that many students would be reached and would respond positively to the gospel message. Pray too for the CU as they seek to choose suitable candidates for their next committee.
