

Penrallt Baptist Church

Newsletter: February 2017

There were no clocks or calendars in early New Testament times. Around Christmas we often try to fit the birth, the visit of the Magi, the flight to Egypt etc in a sequence dictated by our modern understanding of time and the sequence that might dictate. One of those events is the so called 'massacre of the innocents' but it may well have been some time later; you will recall Herod ordered the slaughter of male children two years or less to be sure of killing the chosen one (Matt. 2:13–18). I wonder what it might have been like...

Mary was talking with Joseph; as they readied themselves to sleep.

"What was he like?"

"What was who like?"

"That angel that came to you in your dreams."

"He was very tall, it seemed as if he was standing in the air about a cubit above the ground. He was dressed in a long sort of golden coat which shone like the brightest sun. He spoke as soon as he arrived so I listened rather than looked at him if you know what I mean."

"Not really".

"He was the shape of a man I think; but the face was more like that of a beautiful woman..."

"Like me Joseph?" Mary smiled mischievously.

"No, Mary not like you, older than you and not as nice as you; he didn't look mischievous like you and he didn't have your lovely smile. As I was saying... I couldn't tell whether it was man or woman: it was the voice which seemed to demand my attention. He said I was to take you home as my wife because the baby inside you was from God. I was shocked, I can tell you; but that's what you'd told me at first and I confess I did not believe you immediately. He sounded a bit like a Roman centurion giving an order but in a kind sort of way, the angel spoke, as if I should pay attention. I didn't want to divorce you, Mary; God forbid! So when he said I should marry you completely I was glad."

"Why?"

"Because I love you, Mary. I can't imagine life without you, I didn't want to divorce you as the rabbi would have demanded so I was very willing to marry you."

"That's nice, I'm glad you agreed to marry me; because after I went to visit my aunt Elizabeth and she was so glad to see me it was easier to believe what my angel had said. Now we have Jesus; isn't he just perfect, the birth was painful but the moment he was born all that was forgotten when Jesus smiled at me."

"I'm sure that was wind."

"No it wasn't darling; he smiled and then fell asleep."

The couple snuggle together with Jesus by Mary's side. They kiss then quickly fall asleep.

~~~~~

"Joseph... Joseph!"

Joseph struggles to wake up, "Er yes, who's there..." but his words fail him as before him stands the same angel as before.

"You must leave this place tonight", the angel declared, "Herod is looking for the boy child; his men have orders to kill every boy under two; they will be here tomorrow morning early. You must leave quickly. ...Now, Joseph!"

"Mary, wake up Mary, we have to leave". Mary struggles to wake up.

"What did you say, Joseph; leave, why?"

"That angel we were talking about just before we went to sleep; he came to me again, we have to leave here now; Herod's men are coming to kill Jesus and every other boy-child under two. We have to go now!"

"In the morning, Joseph. I'm so tired we'll go in the morning." Mary turns away from Joseph and hugs Jesus.

"I'm sorry Mary but we must go now; the angel was right before and he's probably right this time too, come on... if we leave now while it's still dark it will be cooler and we can put some distance between us and this place while it's still dark. Come on, Mary, please!"

"Oh very well Joseph my love, but where shall we go? Herod's people are everywhere; how will we escape them?"

"We'll head down the Jordan valley to Jericho and then take the road to Egypt it's the only place he won't bother to look."

"But Joseph dear that is so far it will take us days and days to get to Egypt."

"We'll go to Jericho first, buy what we need there with some of those gold coins that wise foreigner gave us, I wonder if God sent him with his friends; we shall have enough to buy what we need for the journey, come on..."

~~~~~

Mary, Joseph and Jesus journeyed down to Egypt following the major trade route all the way. It might have taken them a week with much uncertainty along the route. They would be carrying water and food for the journey not knowing what lay ahead or how long they would have to stay either. Life would be a real challenge for them. Herod lived until 4AD so the trip to Egypt may well have been a long one.

As you look into your own short term future are you prepared to trust our heavenly Father with the outcome, trusting Him for the future as Mary Joseph and the young Jesus had to?

Every blessing.

Gift Day for Manse - February 5th

We look forward to the arrival of Rev. Freddy Farias-Palacios as our new minister this year. As part of this we are currently in process of buying a new house as a manse, our offer of £190,000 has been accepted and we are going through the surveys and legal process. We are using the proceeds from the sale of the old manse, £87,000 as the main deposit and currently applying to the Baptist Union for a loan. We are also looking to use some of our reserves towards the cost. In addition some people have already given, or said they would like to give additional donations specifically for the manse purchase. We therefore intend to have a gift day for the manse on Sunday 5th February and would ask if you prayerfully consider if you are able to make an additional donation. Any amount given will help to reduce the amount of the loan and be less of a future commitment. We would also ask if you could gift aid any donations if eligible to do so as this will add a further 25% to the value of the gift. We will have envelopes available on the day which will also allow you to gift aid if applicable. If you would prefer to make a bank transfer please annotate with 'manse'. Thank you for your continued support as we enter this next chapter in the life of the fellowship here in Penrallt.

Stephen Burrows

Better still, you can receive the prayer diary straight to your inbox every Monday (or occasionally on Tuesdays) by emailing the office now and requesting to be put on the list. For more immediate and interactive sharing of prayers, search on Facebook for Penrallt Prayer Point and send a request to join our group.

◇ Rough Sleepers

We visit residential homes in the area once a month on a Sunday afternoon, alternating between Haulfre (in Llangoed, on Anglesey, starting at 2:15pm) and Plas Garnedd (in Llanberis, starting at 2:45pm), usually on the first Sunday. This month we are due to visit Plas Garnedd on Sunday 5th February but please check with the church office or see that week's news sheet to confirm that this is going ahead.

The Baptist Missionary Society raises extra funds by selling used postage stamps (also coins, medals, old postcards and pre-1950 greetings cards). Please trim stamps leaving 3mm (1/8inch) of envelope all round. Labelled packets may be left in the Church office.

Focus on...

Kathy Russell

Serving with BMS in Mozambique

Kathy previously practised as a lawyer in Australia and then England with a focus on family law and child protection. She is now working with the Baptist Convention of Mozambique and the Association of Mozambican Christian Lawyers (advogados) – ‘AMAC’, using her skills to help develop justice and advocacy ministries. Kathy is part of a small BMS team there, including others with legal backgrounds and experience.

The AMAC has two legal offices. Kathy is based in the capital city Maputo, with a part-time lawyer and two law students. The rest of the team is based in Beira.

In Mozambique more than half the population is below the age of 18 and the law relating to child protection is relatively new, having commenced in 2008. The challenge is how to make it known and beyond that – to make a positive impact.

Kathy and her team do legal educations in churches during their Sunday morning services. Services in Mozambique typically go on for about 3-4 hours and some Pastors have asked the AMAC to use 40 minutes of that to discuss family law and domestic violence, which they do from both a Biblical and legal perspective.

The AMAC also do legal educations with Pepe, the Preschool education program run by some Baptist Churches. They are able to speak with the teachers about child protection and discuss many practical issues,

One outcome of the legal educations is that people learn that they or their family or neighbours are able to do something about the injustices they are facing and turn to the AMAC for individual practical advice or even legal representation.

Kathy says "We really thank God as AMAC has come a long way, we rely on a small staff and volunteers but God always provides the right people to meet the right needs."
