

Newsletter: January 2026

Over the last 18 months we have been spending time as a leadership and as a fellowship praying, listening to God, thinking and discussing together what God is calling us to be and to do as his church here today and at this time. We believe that God's leading for us is the following:

Our Vision

Our vision is to be the light of the love of Jesus at the top of the hill, bringing glory to God and making Jesus known.

Our Mission

Our mission is:

- to see all people's lives blessed, transformed and reconciled to God by Jesus through his love, his Word and his Holy Spirit;
- to see this in our local area in Bangor, in Gwynedd and Anglesey and beyond, through the networks and communities where we all connect with others;
- so we influence our society and all our communities for good.

I find this quite inspiring and exciting and I hope it inspires and excites you too. In our Sunday morning services in January we will be preaching through this and reflecting as a congregation on the Bible passages and pictures which have led us to this. We will be asking God to inspire us and equip us by his Holy Spirit. We want to be and to do all that he calls us to be and to do. We'll look afresh at what we are called to as followers of Jesus individually and as a church together.

So we commit again to continue our love and support for one another in this coming year. We hope and pray that God's good purposes are fulfilled through our lives and through the activities, events and programme of the church. We pray that we are inspired, equipped and filled with his Holy Spirit to fulfil his plans and purposes for us.

Blessings,

John

Chris and Anna Hembury

Serving in Hull with CMS

Chris and Anna moved from North Wales (and Penrallt) at the tail end of the last century to work with Hull Youth For Christ. They are still working in Hull, now under the banner of the Church Mission Society (CMS). Here are some extracts from their forthcoming newsletter (please contact the church office if you would like a copy of the full newsletter when it is published):

We seem to have found ourselves in a season of endings. First, there was the decision to close Matt's House, our courageously experimental intentional community, after some 10+ years... So we are exploring how to do missional community in a local but dispersed form. Then, our local church found itself undergoing a serious overhaul of all its activities... We had been hosting an “all are welcome” space where anyone could come in off the street, enjoy the garden and warm space, a cuppa and toast, join in or not on their own terms with a bit of creative reflection around a theme / passage from the Bible, prayer and a shared lunch. Given where we live, and the other social provision the church had going during the week (food bank, clothing bank, addiction recovery groups, etc.), many of the folk who dropped in and joined us were battling addictions, homelessness and unprocessed trauma... In the end, without animosity, we felt it might be better to start afresh around the corner at the Parish Hall (run by Hull YFC, where Orts, Circuit Breaker and many of the other activities we're involved in happen).

Now, after 21 years of taking children and young people to Frontier Camp, constraints and changes in the way camp is run as well as the particular needs of those we bring from our community, mean we find ourselves starting afresh there too. We and loads of kids / teenagers / adults from Hull are grieving the end of what has been a hugely important part of our lives and giving thanks for all the fun, relationships, joy and faith formation. With the team here we are taking the bold step to reimagine what a homespun summer camp for our lot might look like next year.

Shoshin is a Japanese term that translates as “beginner’s mind”. It refers to a paradox: the more you know about a subject, the more likely you are to close your mind to further learning. We have been here a long time and were getting comfortable with the idea of living this next season as some sort of wise elders, experts in the field who had seen it all before and could contribute best by sharing from the wealth of our experience. It seems God has a better idea! We find ourselves called to start again — with fresh eyes and intellectual humility, free of preconceptions, filled with curiosity and open to a world of possibilities. “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 18:3).
